IMAGE COLLECTION 6 :: MULTIPLE PERSONALITIES

ASSIGNED :: Thursday, February 25 2016

DUE :: Thursday, March 3, 2016

POINTS :: 10 (3 points per image, 1 point for candidate image collage)

DESCRIPTION

Portraiture often presents many challenges related to the ever-changing variables involved – your subject's mood and level of comfort, weather, light conditions, etc. To combat these factors, it is necessary to capture many images from which to choose and edit. Experiment with shooting from different angles and heights. Change your subject's position and pose. Work to create 3 to 5 images for each style listed below. Create a simple collage of the candidate images you shot and save as a JPG.

Select the strongest image from each style for editing and retouching.

Formal Portrait :: headshot style image of one subject in front of a neutral backdrop or wall. Set up indoors in a well-lit area, and use a white poster board for bounce light/reflector. Edit and retouch for realistic color, crispness and clarity.

Informal Portrait :: relaxed image of one subject outdoors. Plan for good light – take time of day into account and look for solid shade in which to shoot. Use a white poster board for bounce light/reflector. Edit and retouch for artistic effect.

Self-Portrait :: Be creative! Be deliberate and put real thought into your plan. Set your camera on a tripod or solid surface, and use a remote trigger or your camera's self-timer. Retouch and edit to suit your personal style and aesthetic preferences.
